Calling In the Beloved

With Linda E. Savage, Ph.D.

This is a dynamic one day retreat for women, blending concepts from many paths and spiritual traditions. Whether you are in relationship and wanting to take it deeper, longing to bring in a spiritual partner, or intending to heal your limiting beliefs about relationships, this is for you. We will share our stories, build collective energy around a Mesa, strengthen our connection to body wisdom, develop our visioning powers and create a personal focus wheel. The day ends with a ceremony in the sacred circle of the Elder Palms and a commitment to self practice. Included in the event are items to take home: a meditation CD, a visioning board, and candle from the Mesa creating a pathway to continue the work.

- I Mesa narratives
- II The power of Visioning
- III Womb Wisdom
- IV Yearning Transformed
- V Creating Personal Focus Wheel [bring images from home]
